

Love is a miracle

Text/Musik: Bodo Schaffrath/Thomas Temmer

When another day begins there will be many, many things, I know:
little babies start to cry out loud the first time they can see the light.
If I only could find words to explain how I felt inside,
The first time you were lying in my arms: a feeling I can not describe.

Love is a miracle and you're my love:
your smile is hope, your eyes are light.
Please don't lose this natural smile and lay your arms on me.

As I sit here and play this song, you're still wondering: what's going on on earth.
You sit beside me with your Teddybear and listen to your daddies words.

Love is a miracle and you're my love:
your smile is hope, your eyes are light.
Please don't lose this natural smile and lay your arms on me.

Love is a miracle and you're my love:
your smile is hope, your eyes are light.
Please don't lose this natural smile and lay your arms on me,
lay your arms on me!
